- Root contains only header information and links.

- Leaves contain pointers to matrix information

- Marshalled form only has information at the leaves